WOMAN AVOIDS OPERATION

Medicine Which Made Surgeon's Work Unnecessary.

Astoria, N. Y.—"For two years I was feeling ill and took all kinds of tonics. I was getting worse every day. I had chills, my head would ache, I was always tired. I could not walk straight because of the pain in my back and I had pains in my stomach. I went to a doctor and he said I must go under an operation, but I did not go. I read in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and told my husband about it. I said 'I know nothing will help me but I will try this.' I found myself improving from the very first bottle, and in two weeks time I was able to sit down and eat a hearty breakfast with my husband, which I had not done for two years. I am now in the best of health and did not have the operation."—Mrs. JOHN A. KOENIG, 502 Flushing Avenue, Astoria, N. Y.

Every one dreads the surgeon's knife and the operating table. Sometimes nothing else will do; but many times doctors say they are necessary when they are not. Letter after letter comes to the Pinkham Laboratory, telling how operations were advised and were not performed; or if performed, did no good, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was used and good health followed.

If you want advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.

The churches united Sunday evening in a union meeting at the Premier theater. The meeting was quite well attended. The address was delivered by Rev. A. C. Barre, D. D., of Westerville, O., on the subject, "Prohibition for All Vermont," asking the text, "It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood, Matt. 27:5. The address was enlightening, entertaining and inspiring and should bear fruit.

NEWPORT CENTER

The village school has been closed for a week on account of the small-pox scare.

Friday, Jan. 14, the brothers and sisters of Mrs. O. T. Kilby met at her home for a visit.

Jacob Clapper died at the Brightlook hospital in St. Johnsbury Tuesday, Jan. 17. The remains were brought to his home here and the funeral was at the residence Friday, Rev. Kelley officiating. Interment was in the North Troy cemetery.

Among those from out of town to attend the funeral of Thomas E. Sweet were Mrs. Annie Hutchins, S. Silas Oviatt of Sheldon, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Larabee of Westfield, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Larabee, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Button, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Larabee and two daughters of North Troy, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sheldon of Sheffield and C. L. Sweet of Sheldon.

Thomas E. Sweet died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. S. Larabee, on Monday, Jan. 11. He had been in failing health for the past few months, but the end of his hard but honest life was very calm. He was born in Swanton Sept. 28, 1828, and spent the greater part of his life there. In 1850 he married Eliza Jane Searles of Sheldon, who died 16 years ago. In 1878 Mr. Sweet and family moved to a farm east of this village, now occupied by S. Smith. Here Mr. Sweet took up his work. They remained for some time. In 1909 he went to live with his daughter, where he has since made his home. The funeral was at the home of his granddaughter, Mrs. L. G. Peabody, Rev. Perkins officiating. The bearers were A. S. Larabee, E. E. Larabee, Curtis Sweet and Samuel Sweet. Interment was in the local cemetery. He is survived by seven children: Harvey Sweet, Samuel Sweet, Mrs. O. T. Kilby and Mrs. E. E. Larabee of this place, Mrs. Anna Sheldon of Sheffield, Curtis Sweet of Sheldon, and Mrs. A. S. Larabee of North Troy. He is also survived by twenty grandchildren and twenty-six grandchildren, who are left to mourn his loss.

He Is Self Opinionated.

Hokus-Fludub seems to have a wonderful opinion of his knowledge. Pokus—I should say he has. Why, I have actually heard him attempt to argue with his son, who is in his freshman year at college!—Kansas City Star.

The friends here of Mr. and Mrs. Conley of Westmore are sad to learn that their only child died very suddenly last week. Mrs. Conley was Miss Elsie Dwire of this place.

On the afternoon of Tuesday of last week the Ladies' Aid society and invited guests to the number of 40 met at the home of Mrs. Martha Hill for a birthday party, for all those having their birthdays in January. These were Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. Reed, N. C. Eastman, Edwin Hill and several children. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent by music and a social time. At 5 o'clock nice refreshments of sandwiches, assorted cake and tea was served, the children having cocoa. A large birthday cake made by Mrs. Hetherington and cut by Mrs. Boyd caused much merriment as it contained several treasures. The wishing and blowing out of the candles also provoked much laughter. Many thanks are due Mrs. Hill for opening her home for the occasion and helping everyone to have such a good time. We think the Ladies' Aid society plans to have a birthday celebration each month this year.

T. B. PRATT.

In the death of Mr. Pratt on Jan. 18, this place loses one of its most respected citizens. Tracy Bingham Pratt was the son of Perry and Hannah Pratt and was born Oct. 15, 1837, in Morgan. He spent his life in this and adjacent towns and for the most part was a very successful farmer. Since retiring from active work he has been in great demand to assist in settling estates and doing such legal work. Always quiet and attending to his own duties, he won many friends. On Feb. 12, 1861, he was united in marriage at Morgan to Mrs. Lois A. Brown of this place. Mrs. Pratt died Oct. 6, 1863, leaving two little daughters, the youngest of whom was only two weeks old. Ada became the wife of J. W. Cook of this place and died June 15, 1912, while Mary became Mrs. Bradbury and has been a widow for many years, residing at Lowell, Mass. Mr. Pratt has lived this village many years and part of the time alone. He had been in failing health for a long while and was lovingly cared for during his last illness by his granddaughter, Mrs. Parker Kelley of East Charleston. Besides the daughter, Mrs. Bradbury and granddaughter, Mrs. Kelley, he leaves another granddaughter, Mrs. Ralph Allbee of Concord, N. H. All three were present at the funeral which was held at the Baptist church, Rev. W. D. Hetherington officiating, assisted by Rev. W. R. Price. Burial was in the family lot in the village cemetery. There were beautiful flowers from relatives. Mrs. Bradbury, Mrs. Kelley and Mrs. Allbee are very grateful for all the kindness shown the deceased during his lonely life and illness.

RESOLUTIONS

At the meeting of the Prospect Pioneers Grange, held at Irasburg Jan. 20 the following resolution was adopted:

In that it has pleased the Great Master of the Universe to remove from our midst by death our beloved sister, Mrs. George Calkins,

Resolved, That the wisdom and ability which she has exercised in the aid of our order by service and counsel will be felt in grateful remembrance.

The members of this Grange wish to place on record their appreciation of her loyalty and devotion to the Grange and to extend to Brother George Calkins and family their heartfelt sympathy in this bereavement.

The Electric Eel.

The electric organ of the electric eel is in no sense a storage battery, but a contrivance by which electric energy is liberated at the moment when it is required. At rest the organ shows so small an electromotive force that a good galvanometer is required to detect it, but a sudden nervous impulse from the eel's spinal cord raises a potential of many volts with very little heat and so small an expenditure of matter as to defy the most expert chemist to weigh it.

Russia's Wonderful Clock.

Petrograd contains the most wonderful clock in the world. There are ninety-five faces to this colossal time-piece, which indicates simultaneously the time of day at thirty different places, besides the movement of the earth around the sun, the phases of the moon, the signs of the zodiac and the date according to the Gregorian, Greek, Mussulman and Hebrew calendars. The works took two years to put together after the clock had been sent in detached pieces from Switzerland to Russia.

To Singe Chickens.

To singe chickens hold them over a saucer of burning alcohol. It does not leave soot on the flesh.

If Maple Sugar Sells at 10c a pound

The coming spring, and we are willing to contract to pay that, the month of sugaring will be the big money making month of the year for the farmer who is so fortunate as to own a good sugar place.

Orders are coming in for Monarch Sugar Tools at a rate that will tax us to the limit, as material is very hard to get in fact, some kinds are almost entirely out of the market already.

There will surely be a shortage of buckets and probably galvanized covers, so get your orders right along for these goods.

We are still taking in sugar at 12 cts. a pound it must be hard and in good packages

This price is subject to withdrawal any day. We want a few gallons more fancy, fine flavored, light colored syrup at no use for any other kind.

$1.25 a gallon

The Store that Sells Wooltex Garments

There are only a few days remaining of the House-keeping Sale and we hope that our customers will realize the great saving there is on Linens and Cottons if bought NOW from the prices that we will be obliged to ask later for THE SAME GOODS. We will have nearly none of these Goods left after the sale and will be obliged to buy New Stock at the higher prices.

Fruit of the Loom and Lockwood Cottons cost today to buy in large quantities more than we offer them for and you can purchase only one yard if that is all you feel you want. We had enough of these cottons on hand when the sale opened to last through but will not have any left over, most of those on hand we bought last June at the lowest prices.

Damask that we are selling today at 50c a yard, costs to replace exactly the same number 52 1-2c by the piece and of course the better grades will have the same per cent added. We have already given orders for damasks for next spring and had to pay an advance in some patterns of 17 1-2c a yard and have bought early because we felt the damask was bound to go higher.

Stevens Twilled Crash

Bleached, 16 1-2c—brown, 15 1-2c

Our last order for this crash, given some time ago, was for twenty pieces from one of the largest wholesale dealers. We received only nine pieces with the report that that was all they had, and the balance of the order would have to be cancelled as they had no more coming in.

Brown Twilled Crash

at 12 1-2c that we bought in place of Stevens costs today by the piece 13 1-2c. While it lasts you can buy it at 12 1-2c.

We have bought several lots of blankets to be sent at once for next fall because we could buy them at the old prices by closing out entire lots. If you can do so buy blankets now for next fall. This is not the usual year and advances will be greater than ever before on actual necessities that everyone has to have during the year. Don't fail to buy all housekeeping goods you will need for the year if it is possible for you to do so.

GARMENT DEPARTMENT

All Ready-to-wear Coats, Suits, Skirts, Waists and Furs will be closed out at the sale prices. Some extra bargains will be found as some of the lines are getting somewhat broken in sizes and the only way to fill in sizes is to use the next higher priced line. We still have a better line than would be found at the height of the season in many places this size but we have a business in this department that allows us to carry a much larger stock than is usually found outside of a large city store.

Women's Natural Raccoon Coats at $59, $69, $79

Don't suffer with the cold when you can buy the Best Riding Coat this year at less than half what it would have cost a couple of years ago and what it will cost later.

If you ever want a warm riding coat buy a raccoon while you can buy it cheap.
